

Wiggly Worms

Earthworms make tunnels that help air and water get into the soil. They pull dead leaves into their tunnels to eat, which feeds the soil. Help the worm at the surface find their way through the tunnels to their friend underground.

